William J. Kirkpatrick (1838-1921)

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The music begins with a series of chords in the bass and a melody in the treble.

The second system continues the piece with similar harmonic and melodic patterns. The bass line features a steady accompaniment of chords, while the treble line carries the main melody.

The third system concludes the main body of the piece. It ends with a double bar line and the word "Fine" written above the treble staff.

Tornada

The Tornada section is a short, three-measure piece. It features a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment. The first measure contains a quarter note, followed by a dotted quarter note in the second measure, and a triplet of eighth notes in the third measure.

D.S. al Fine

The D.S. al Fine section is a short, three-measure piece. It features a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment. The first measure contains a quarter note, followed by a dotted quarter note in the second measure, and a triplet of eighth notes in the third measure.
